

Hotel beauty “mini-bar”

The days of plastic shower caps and sewing kits considered as hotel beauty amenities are long gone. Beauty companies worldwide love to showcase their products to hotel guests in hopes of increasing sales, and, beauty die-hards love to test drive any new product on the market – especially, when it’s free.

State-side

The Nor-Cal boutique hotel chain Larkspur Hotels & Restaurants provides hotel guests with L’Occitane en Provence beauty products in each of its Larkspur Collection hotel locations.
